

RE: Pappas Telecasting Company

Dear FCC Commissioners,

It is outrageous that a broadcaster, using the public's airwaves and tasked to operate under the public trust, would try to "donate" $325,000 in airtime to Republican candidates. Has the Fairness Doctrine been repealed while the American public wasn't looking?

Pappas Telecasting Companies' completely partisan "donation" is yet another instance of a large media group abusing the power its broadcasting license gives them.

Pappas uses the public airwaves free of charge and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Pappas' actions are legally questionable and I call on you, the guardian of our public airwaves, to put a stop to them.

As with Sinclair Broadcasting a mere few weeks ago, Pappas' actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken or eliminate them.

Thank you for your immediate attention to this flagrant abuse of a broadcast license.

Sincerely,
Harriet Moss
